

October

The comments in this summary relate to Target Corporation sales for the four week and year-to-date periods ended October 28, 2006 compared to the four-week and year-to-date periods ended October 29, 2005. These sales results are included in the table of our sales release issued on November 2, 2006.

Comparable store sales in October increased 3.9 percent, driven almost entirely by growth in average ticket. Traffic in the month was essentially flat to LY. Comparable store sales in the same period a year ago grew 5.7 percent.

The current month sales release quotes Bob Ulrich, chairman and CEO of Target Corporation, as saying, "Our October comparable store sales growth was in line with our expectations."

The merchandise categories with the strongest comparable store sales growth during the month included: healthcare, toys, consumables/perishables and household/personal/baby. The categories with the weakest sales performance for the month were jewelry & accessories, decorative home and domestics.

Target's strongest markets during October were in the West Coast and Midwest.

At month-end, our inventory was in very good condition.

Looking forward, our plan for November 2006 reflects an increase in comparable store sales in the range of 4 to 7 percent. For perspective, comparable store sales in November 2005 increased 2.6 percent.
